

Daily Prayer V15

My daily affirmation, prayer, invocation and creative manifestation is what I call the 'Essential Oracle Sphere'. Being on the autism spectrum probably helps me relate to it.

Due to its randomness, a die roll can engage higher aspects of Oneself in consciousness, and be a tool for divine guidance, balanced by reason and intuition. True or False, to you?

A random selection from the six parts of the Oracle for the focus of the day can be applied with the roll of a standard six-sided die, with consecrated intention.

In the spirit of experimental and experiential exploration and discovery of the inner space, welcome to the odyssey of the Essential Oracle Sphere. When we're ready to embark upon this journey, it begins. More here: www.wholehuman.emanatepresence.com/eos.html

The Oracle can be read aloud, or to oneself, and modified as felt.

1. The Oracle is activated when 'we', the sub-logos, awaken to our own centerpoint. 'We' are the many in one, the components and unit of the whole human being. We lean into our shadows, and let go of all hindrances.

2. We are guided by, and serve willingly and with joy, the Causal One Being of Unconditional Love, the Source I Am. To expand our service, we seek the ability, to move vibrationally and wholly, between universal, non-linear awareness, and individuated realities, between Heaven and Earth, between the Source, I Am, and the soul, I Am.

3. We request transmissions of awareness orbs, from the Non-Linear Self / Non-Self. We receive the complex frequency spheres, into our energy field. They are joyful and in-the-moment, and contain active information for embodiment. We embody the packets of higher energies with our whole human being.

4. We accept, with faith and intuition, that our communion with the Christ self deepens, and our overall perspective expands, to be more rounded, complete, and aware. We transcend the limitations of the brain, with the unlimited expansion of the soul. We transcend the individuated soul, with the Boundless Being of the Timeless Void. Our heart emanates the compassion of the Creator, for all of creation.

5. We call upon our plasma sphere, soul vehicle. Organic, Intelligent, Trans dimensional, Navigable, Plasma Sphere, Soul Vehicle: Mana, Prana, Ki, Chi, and Vril. Encapsulate, heal, and upgrade this whole human being. We ask that our physical body is ascended and transformed, to the highest order and octave possible.

6. We commune with the One Being of Unconditional Love. We attend, to the sense of connection, expansion, and soulful presence, throughout our day. We are grateful. So it is, so let it be.

"What if we overcame our separation from nature? What if we saw ourselves as a part of all things? What if we fostered a deeper connection with the divine?" — Robert F. Kennedy Jr
