

WHOLE TREE, Version 31.0.

By Emanate Presence.

I am, a fractal of the One Being, a localization, of non-localized consciousness. I am Love, for Love itself. On this journey, 'I', refers to the fractal focus, of the I Am. Love, for Love itself, flows through me. We are, One Being.

Moving into a comfortable position, I still my mind, clearing it of thought. I breathe smoothly and regularly, and take breaths as needed. I feel the yearning of my heart for direct experience with the I Am, the True Self, the cosmos of consciousness.

I set my intention to travel, up through the dimensional planes of the Cosmic Tree of Life, up through the CROWN dimension, and into the non-local consciousness of the Whole Tree, the Void. My purpose is to align, with the I Am, to connect and unify, the energy wheels of my body, with their perfect vibrational patterns, in the cosmos of consciousness, and to practice moving my awareness, between localized, and non-localized, consciousness.

I telepath my soul traveler, and animal ally, to prepare for the journey.

I visualize, with feeling, the Present Moment Sphere encompassing my body. It is my soul travel vehicle, and compacts or expands by in-breathing or out-breathing, with intention.

I inhale deeply, compacting my Present Moment Sphere into the sphere around my heart, then, humming ONE, exhale slowly, breathing the light back out, and feeling it expand into my Present Moment Sphere. I pause, relax, and feel.

I relax all my muscles, by tightening and releasing, beginning by tightening my feet, calves and thighs, moving up my legs to my hips. I tighten my upper body muscles, stomach, chest, arms, hands, neck, shoulders, and face. I release and relax the muscles, then pause, feel, and breathe regularly.

I request permission from the earth, to connect with her Vril, also called Mana, Prana, Ki, or Qi.

Permission granted, I inhale vital life energy from the earth, pulling it up through my Bubbling Wells, feeling the clear ray, up the roots of my legs and through my Perineum base, feeling the red ray, through my Sacrum, feeling the orange ray, through my Solar Plexus, feeling the yellow ray, through my Heart space, feeling the green ray, through my Throat, feeling the indigo ray, through my Third Eye, feeling the violet ray, and into my Crown, feeling the golden white ray, then see the energy lighten my brain, and all the cells of my body, as I hum One, feeling the vibration of the hum, emanating through me, cleansing, healing, opening, and balancing all the energy wheels of my human body, aligning, attuning, and harmonizing them, with their perfect vibrational patterns, in the cosmos of consciousness. I pause, relax, and breathe smoothly, and regularly.

I pause, relax, and breathe smoothly, and regularly.

In my heart space is a chamber, and in its center, a travel portal, a ringed veil, of liquid fire fountains. On the back side of the chamber, is an alcove, and standing in it is my soul traveler. As the traveler, facing away from my human body, I walk forward, through the veil of fire, and into the center of the portal ring.

I visualize, with feeling, the Present Moment Sphere encompassing my body. With intention, we breathe my Present Moment Sphere, into my heart space, surrounding my soul traveler, with a sphere of light, and on my out-breath, my soul traveler, floats out from my heart space in its travel Sphere, straight ahead, out of my body, towards YGGDRASIL, the Tree of Life.

As the soul traveler, sailing ahead in my Sphere, the Great Cosmic Tree comes closer, and I feel its immense Presence.

Breathing regularly, I float through the heart spiral of the Tree, a portal entrance to the HEART dimension. All around me, are all the wonders, of a Universe. I am part of it, and it is part of me.

Beneath me, is a portal, a ringed fountain of liquid fire. I land in the center of the portal, on solid ground.

I pause, relax, and breathe smoothly, and regularly, feeling the presence of the VOID, Love for Love itself, and inhale deeply, the elixir of the One Being, pulling it up through my Bubbling Wells, feeling the clear ray, up the roots of my legs and through my Perineum base, feeling the red ray, through my Sacrum, feeling the orange ray, through my Solar Plexus, feeling the yellow ray, through my Heart space, feeling the green ray, through my Throat, feeling the indigo ray, through my Third Eye, feeling the violet ray, and into my Crown, feeling the golden white ray, then see the energy lighten my brain, and all the cells of my body, as I hum One, feeling the vibration of the hum, emanating through me, cleansing, healing, opening, and balancing all the energy wheels of my human body, aligning, attuning, and harmonizing them, with their perfect vibrational patterns, in the cosmos of consciousness. I pause, relax, and breathe smoothly, and regularly.

With intention, we compact the travel sphere into my soul traveler, then breathe smoothly, and regularly. Facing away from my human body, I step through the veil of fire, and out of the portal ring, to the other side, and gaze ahead, at an alcove. Set in a stand is a stout staff, with a large clear crystal embedded into the gnarled wood at its top, and a green Snake, nearby on the floor.

I telepath my Animal Spirit friend, and we communicate our intention to travel up, through the dimensional planes of the Great Cosmic Tree of Life, up through the CROWN, and into the non-localized consciousness of the One Being. The serpent wraps around and climbs up the staff, shrinking and turning into what appears to be a carved figure of a snake just under the crystal stone.

With the staff in hand, I turn away from the alcove, face my human body, and walk through the veil of Fire, into the center of the portal ring. I pause, relax, and breathe regularly. I expand my travel sphere, to encompass my soul traveler, by inhaling, and exhaling, with intention.

I tap my staff on the floor, and in my Travel Sphere, float up, towards the THROAT DIMENSION, corresponding to the throat of my human body.

As I pass through its dimensional plane, I feel the presence of the VOID, Love for Love itself, and inhale deeply, the elixir of the One Being, pulling it up through my Bubbling Wells, feeling the clear ray, up the roots of my legs and through my Perineum base, feeling the red ray, through my Sacrum, feeling the orange ray, through my Solar Plexus, feeling the yellow ray, through my Heart space, feeling the green ray, through my Throat, feeling the indigo ray, through my Third Eye, feeling the violet ray, and into my Crown, feeling the golden white ray, then see the energy lighten my brain, and all the cells of my body, as I hum One, feeling the vibration of the hum, emanating through me, cleansing, healing, opening, and balancing all the energy wheels of my human body, aligning, attuning, and harmonizing them, with their perfect vibrational patterns, in the cosmos of consciousness. I pause, relax, and breathe smoothly, and regularly.

I float up, towards the THIRD EYE REGION OF THE COSMIC TREE, corresponding to the pineal gland, the Eye of Ra, of my human body.

As I pass through its dimensional plane, I feel the presence of the VOID, Love for Love itself, and inhale deeply, the elixir of the One Being, pulling it up through my Bubbling Wells, feeling the clear ray, up the roots of my legs and through my Perineum base, feeling the red ray, through my Sacrum, feeling the orange ray, through my Solar Plexus, feeling the yellow ray, through my Heart space, feeling the green ray, through my Throat, feeling the indigo ray, through my Third Eye, feeling the violet ray, and into my Crown, feeling the golden white ray, then see the energy lighten my brain, and all the cells of my body, as I hum One, feeling the vibration of the hum, emanating through me, cleansing, healing, opening, and balancing all the energy wheels of my human body, aligning, attuning, and harmonizing them, with their perfect vibrational patterns, in the cosmos of consciousness. I pause, relax, and breathe smoothly, and regularly.

I float up, towards the CROWN OF THE COSMIC TREE, corresponding to the crown, of my human body.

As I pass through its dimensional plane, I feel the presence of the VOID, Love for Love itself, and inhale deeply, the elixir of the One Being, pulling it up through my Bubbling Wells, feeling the clear ray, up the roots of my legs and through my Perineum base, feeling the red ray, through my Sacrum, feeling the orange ray, through my Solar Plexus, feeling the yellow ray, through my Heart space, feeling the green ray, through my Throat, feeling the indigo ray, through my Third Eye, feeling the violet ray, and into my Crown, feeling the golden white ray, then see the energy lighten my brain, and all the cells of my body, as I hum One, feeling the vibration of the hum, emanating through me, cleansing, healing, opening, and balancing all the energy wheels of my human body, aligning, attuning, and harmonizing them, with their perfect vibrational patterns, in the cosmos of consciousness. I pause, relax, and breathe smoothly, and regularly.

I float above the Crown, and land on a solid surface beneath me, in the center of the Crown portal ring.

I ground myself, into the CROWN dimension, by inhaling vital life energy from the EARTH, pulling it up through my Bubbling Wells, feeling the clear ray, up the roots of my legs and through my Perineum base, feeling the red ray, through my Sacrum, feeling the orange ray, through my Solar Plexus, feeling the yellow ray, through my Heart space, feeling the green ray, through my Throat, feeling the indigo ray, through my Third Eye, feeling the violet ray, and into my Crown, feeling the golden white ray, then see the energy lighten my brain, and all the cells of my body, as I hum One, feeling the vibration of the hum, emanating through me, cleansing, healing, opening, and balancing all the energy wheels of my human body, aligning, attuning, and harmonizing them, with their perfect vibrational patterns, in the cosmos of consciousness. I pause, relax, and breathe smoothly, and regularly.

I lower my staff, surrender myself, and address the Great Being. 'True Self, the I Am, of all that is, live through me, in my human body. Grant that I may feel You, sensing through my senses, acting through my actions, breathing through my breath, and emanating your presence, through me. With all my Being, so let it be.' There is a response felt, an acknowledgement.

Tapping my staff on the ground, I am transported, in my travel sphere, out of the CROWN REGION, into non-local consciousness, the VOID. My travel sphere, is no more. Here, there are no borders. No boundaries. In a way of meta-feeling, when the soul lies down in this grass, the world is too full to talk about. In the Void, there are no words. No concepts. No ideas. No emotions. No time. No space. No death. No separation. Though inexpressible, it is a state of pre-existence. Pure potentiality. The Is ness, of Here and Now. The immensely powerful Presence, of a Great Being. The One Being, is the I Am, of me. I am Love, for Love itself. We are One Being.

It is time. I feel the staff in my hand, and return slowly, in my travel sphere, transitioning from non-localized consciousness, to the localized dimensional sphere, of the CROWN. I stand in the center of its portal ring, and pause, relax, and feel.

Feeling the presence of the VOID, Love for Love itself, I inhale deeply, the elixir of the One Being, pulling it up through my Bubbling Wells, feeling the clear ray, up the roots of my legs and through my Perineum base, feeling the red ray, through my Sacrum, feeling the orange ray, through my Solar Plexus, feeling the yellow ray, through my Heart space, feeling the green ray, through my Throat, feeling the indigo ray, through my Third Eye, feeling the violet ray, and into my Crown, feeling the golden white ray, then see the energy lighten my brain, and all the cells of my body, as I hum One, feeling the vibration of the hum, emanating through me, cleansing, healing, opening, and balancing all the energy wheels of my human body, aligning, attuning, and harmonizing them, with their perfect vibrational patterns, in the cosmos of consciousness. I pause, relax, and breathe smoothly, and regularly.

Tapping my staff on the ground, I transport myself back down the Cosmic Tree of Life, from the CROWN, down through the THIRD EYE dimension, the pineal gland of my human body, and as I pass through its dimensional plane, I feel the presence of the VOID, Love for Love itself, and inhale deeply, the elixir of the One Being, pulling it up through my Bubbling Wells, feeling the clear ray, up the roots of my legs and through my Perineum base, feeling the red ray, through my Sacrum, feeling the orange ray, through my Solar Plexus, feeling the yellow ray, through my Heart space, feeling the green ray, through my Throat, feeling the indigo ray, through my Third Eye, feeling the violet ray, and into my Crown, feeling the golden white ray, then see the energy lighten my brain, and all the cells of my body, as I hum One, feeling the vibration of the hum, emanating through me, cleansing, healing, opening, and balancing all the energy wheels of my human body, aligning, attuning, and harmonizing them, with their perfect vibrational patterns, in the cosmos of consciousness. I pause, relax, and breathe smoothly, and regularly.

I continue floating down the Cosmic Tree, down through the THROAT dimension, corresponding to the Throat of my human body, and as I pass through its dimensional plane, I feel the presence of the VOID, Love for Love itself, and inhale deeply, the elixir of the One Being, pulling it up through my Bubbling Wells, feeling the clear ray, up the roots of my legs and through my Perineum base, feeling the red ray, through my Sacrum, feeling the orange ray, through my Solar Plexus, feeling the yellow ray, through my Heart space, feeling the green ray, through my Throat, feeling the indigo ray, through my Third Eye, feeling the violet ray, and into my Crown, feeling the golden white ray, then see the energy lighten my brain, and all the cells of my body, as I hum One, feeling the vibration of the hum, emanating through me, cleansing, healing, opening, and balancing all the energy wheels of my human body, aligning, attuning, and harmonizing them, with their perfect vibrational patterns, in the cosmos of consciousness. I pause, relax, and breathe smoothly, and regularly.

I continue floating down the Cosmic Tree, down through the HEART dimension, corresponding to the heart space of my human body, and as I pass through its dimensional plane, I feel the presence of the VOID, Love for Love itself, and inhale deeply, the elixir of the One Being, pulling it up through my Bubbling Wells, feeling the clear ray, up the roots of my legs and through my Perineum base, feeling the red ray, through my Sacrum, feeling the orange ray, through my Solar Plexus, feeling the yellow ray, through my Heart space, feeling the green ray, through my Throat, feeling the indigo ray, through my Third Eye, feeling the violet ray, and into my Crown, feeling the golden white ray, then see the energy lighten my brain, and all the cells of my body, as I hum One, feeling the vibration of the hum, emanating through me, cleansing, healing, opening, and balancing all the energy wheels of my human body, aligning, attuning, and harmonizing them, with their perfect vibrational patterns, in the cosmos of consciousness. I pause, relax, and breathe smoothly, and regularly.

I land inside the portal ring, of the HEART dimension, in the great Cosmic Tree of Life. I inhale my travel sphere back into my heart center, then pause, relax, feel, and breathe regularly. I walk out through the portal ring, away from my human body, and into the alcove, then place the staff back in its stand, wink at the carved snake, and it winks back at me, then lowers itself to the floor, and shape-shifts into a dragon. We nod to each other, and the dragon flies out of the chamber, into its own dimension.

I turn from the alcove, face my human body, and walk back, through the veil of fire, to the center of the portal ring. I pause, relax, and feel.

I inhale and exhale, to expand my travel sphere, encompassing my soul traveler, and on the next inhale, my soul traveler, floats out the spiral entrance of the cosmic Heart dimension, and back to the Heart space in my human body, landing in the center of the portal ring. I pause, relax, and feel.

I ground myself, by inhaling vital life energy from the earth, pulling it up through my Bubbling Wells, feeling the clear ray, up the roots of my legs and through my Perineum base, feeling the red ray, through my Sacrum, feeling the orange ray, through my Solar Plexus, feeling the yellow ray, through my Heart space, feeling the green ray, through my Throat, feeling the indigo ray, through my Third Eye, feeling the violet ray, and into my Crown, feeling the golden white ray, then see the energy lighten my brain, and all the cells of my body, as I hum One, feeling the vibration of the hum, emanating through me, cleansing, healing, opening, and balancing all the energy wheels of my human body, aligning, attuning, and harmonizing them, with their perfect vibrational patterns, in the cosmos of consciousness. I pause, relax, and breathe smoothly, and regularly.

My soul traveler, still in the portal ring, and facing me, walks through the veil of fire, on the near side, out of the portal ring, to the back of my heart chamber, enters the alcove, and turns to face forward. We bow, and my soul traveler returns to its dimension.

Feeling the presence of the VOID, Love for Love itself, I inhale deeply, the elixir of the One Being, pulling it up through my Bubbling Wells, feeling the clear ray, up the roots of my legs and through my Perineum base, feeling the red ray, through my Sacrum, feeling the orange ray, through my Solar Plexus, feeling the yellow ray, through my Heart space, feeling the green ray, through my Throat, feeling the indigo ray, through my Third Eye, feeling the violet ray, and into my Crown, feeling the golden white ray, then see the energy lighten my brain, and all the cells of my body, as I hum One, feeling the vibration of the hum, emanating through me, cleansing, healing, opening, and balancing all the energy wheels of my human body, aligning, attuning, and harmonizing them, with their perfect vibrational patterns, in the cosmos of consciousness. I pause, relax, and breathe smoothly, and regularly.

Slowly, I move my body, and smile with appreciation. The True Self lives through me, sensing through my senses, acting through my actions, breathing through my breath, and emanating its presence, through me. We are, One Being.
